REPORT OF THE PROGRAM ON "Critical Thinking : Requirement In Every Facet Of Pharmacy"

Nri College of Pharmacy has conducted a program on "CRITICAL THINKING: A REQUIREMENT IN EVERY FACET OF PHARMACY" is one of the most desired skills of pharmacists. Despite many challenges to their thinking, their own perceptions, metacognitive skills and a fixed mindset. A thoughtful learning environment, seeing or hearing is done by executive personal operations that pharmacists should emulate and guidance given to the patients for their prevention and cure in the community service .

Critical Thinking is needed by every pharmacist because they need to evaluate claims made in the literature, manage and resolve patients medication problems and assess treatment outcomes in hospital pharmacy.

This program has been initiated by Y.A Chowdary Sir and continued with departmental heads explained about the concepts of Critical thinking which will be helpful for the student's development in their ideal thinking, self-analyzing, motivating the patients about the outcome of the condition in their field and personality development.

To emphasize critical thinking, some core skills are required like interpretation, analyzing, evaluating and self-regulating. Besides these critical thinking is all about knowledge and self-development.

Overall program was successful and students got an ideology of identifying a problem , defining the goals, exploring multiple solutions , anticipating outcomes and looking at the effects for the patient related concerns.
